History of Coker Chapel Methodist Church
Vimville, Mississippi

This church was associated with the Methodist Episcopal Church South. During the Civil War, Methodist churches in the South used the word, South, to separate their churches from those in the North.

On the first inside page, there is the following:

J. W. Coker Book - July 20, 1891
Mr. Darling Coker Secretary - July 29, 1894
H. W. Brewster Secretarty - April 12, 1902
W. D. Coker Secretary - no date.

Note: Lauderdale County Dept. of Archives and History holds a famliy history on the Peyton Coker family. This should be referred to in identifying Coker family members as there were many names alike especially among the male family members.

The following is a membership list for the old Pleasant Hill Methodist Church which is thought to have been located in the general area of Vimville, but the exact location is unknown.

One of Sir Peyton Coker's daughters married in this church, so its location was probably not far from present day Vimville.

From looking at the names of the members, this church might have been located between Vimville and the Zero-Long Creek area.
