Hon. John Brandon,
Montgomery, Ala.

Dear Sir:-

On the 29th day of November, 1920, I mailed you a pension application for reclassification for Mrs. Mary Ann Riley. She didnt get her raise in January, but just thinking it didnt reach you in time, she thought sure it would come alright in April. She wasnt raised and she is here this morning to see about it. She is seventy some odd years of age and is entitled to a raise. Will you please write me what the trouble is and what was wrong with the application; it was never returned to me. Her pension number is 13441.

Thanking you in advance, I am,

Yours very truly,

W. J. Nicholson

Mr. Brandon will you please send me just a few blank applications for widows to be placed on the roll after the death of the husband, whose husbands were never on the roll themselves.

INSTRUCTIONS.

The applicant must fill in all the blanks in the application in a neat legible hand, and swear to its correctness before one of the County Board of Examiners, or some other officer authorized to administer an oath. The accompanying schedule of property must also be filled out and sworn to, both application and schedule of property must be filed with the Board of Examiners of the county. The affidavits for witnesses must also be filled out and sworn to by persons of personal knowledge as to the service and other matters contained in the blank affidavits for witnesses. It is not necessary that the witnesses be residents of the State, but they must have a personal knowledge of what they swear to. All applications not verified by the affidavit of two persons must be rejected. As the application will become an office record, they should be made out carefully and neatly.

The County Board of Examiners must have each applicant (who is not physically or mentally unable to appear,) to appear before them, when they must examine the applicant orally as to all matters pertaining to his application, he if a male person be examined physically by the medical member of the Board, both oral and physical examination must be by the County Board reduced to writing, and forwarded with the application, affidavits and schedule of property, to the Auditor of the State, to be by him laid before the State Board of Examiners. Should an applicant be unable to appear and represent himself, the Board may take such measures as in their opinion may be necessary to satisfy themselves of the merits of the application. In such cases the full facts of the case must be set out in their written report and recommendation. If one or more limbs are lost or the entire use thereof, or if the applicant is blind, this must be reported, and the applicant placed in the class he may justly belong. All persons who served in the "Militia, State Reserves or Home Guards of the State of Alabama" during the war between the States are eligible to relief under this Act. But service in the military organizations of other States does not qualify them.
