Annette,

The 130 pages or so with the rubber bands is the document I received from Clint.

You will note that our great grandfather and his family is on pages 17 to 19 with Uncle Tom's family having the most information.

I have inserted page 19a (six sheets) on the Will Johnson family. The Will Johnson family is complete as of July 2007. I have included what little information that I have on the Thompsons. Note Grandmother Thompson was shown as a Evans and a Eaves. I am not sure which is correct. I have added an index at the end of the document for the Will Johnson family

Also, please note that on page 35 Clinton wrote , in the margin, that Allen Francis Harrison gave him this information

Exhibit A is a two page listing that I made to show our grandfathers and grand mothers. The page of the document where I copied the information is shown on the listing. FEEL FREE to check my accuracy. Let me know if I have erred!!

I called S. W. Calhoun, Jr. 601-482-9752 at the Archives and told him you would probably make a copy and bring it to him. HE SAID DO NOT MAKE A COPY!!! He said call him and he would arrange to be there and he would make a copy and save you the expense.

Be sure and give Clint and Allen Francis Harrison credit for the information to the archives. Clint did not tell me but I have a feeling that Harrison "paid" for this information. Clint said that the listing was emailed to him and his printer ran a long, long time!!

Take care. I am looking for ward to Great grand father marriage certificate!

Walter

Excerpts from an article in The Times, Springfield, TN, June 1, 1992. Local DAR Dedicates Headstone at Revolutionary Soldier Grave.

Members of the Charlotte Reeves Robertson Chapter of the DAR met in a long abandoned burial ground on the farm of Mrs. W. L. HOLMAN on Sunday afternoon to dedicate a headstone at the grave of Henry Johnson, a soldier of the American Revolution.

Following the dedication, a tour was made of the small burial ground which was laid out in a day prior to accessible headstones. Small sandstone markers, half buried in the earth, marked the foot of each grave, while larger stones indicated the head. Some were unidentified, while others bore short inscriptions scratched by the hand.

It was pointed out that the site was near Kilgore Station, which led to the belief that Johnson was probably a neighbor of Thomas Kilgore when the two lived in Maryland, and that Johnson later followed his friend to help settle the wilderness.

All that remains of the Johnson homestead is a rock wall of two rooms which once held a log cabin above. Apparently, the lower enclosure housed food and valuable possessions, being less vulnerable to Indian attack than the wooden structure.

Hubert Orand who cleaned the cemetery and made arrangements for a fence was thanked for his labors during a busy farm season.

Mrs. Hubert Orand, a great-great-great granddaughter, has compiled the following information concerning Mr. Johnson.

Henry Johnson was born in Ireland in the year of 1738 (Month unknown). He went from Ireland to Scotland on through North England, then moved into the United states of America. Henry came to America with his older brother, Isaac Johnson, born in 1722. They came to Maryland, where their Uncle Thomas Johnson and wife Mary Baker Johnson lived, who came from England to St. Leonard's, Maryland, in 1690, to visit and live near, here in America.

Henry was so young when he arrived in America that he was ineligible for his pass papers for several years. By the time he received them, he had met Rachel Holman, born 1743, from Massachusetts.

After marriage in March 1763 in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, both being residents of that state at that time, they lived a while in Pennsylvania. Their first son being born there in 1764. Sometime after his marriage, he removed to North Carolina; he, passing through Virginia, possibly tarried there for a while. In North Carolina, he settled a short distance from the town of Salisbury, near the Yadkin River, and lived there until the latter part of the revolutionary War. In the war, he served as a Private in Captain Ingle's Company, 2nd N. C. Battalion, commanded by Col. John Patten. He also served in Captain Clement Hall's Company, 2nd N. C. Regiment. He was commissioned drummer and fifer in Hall's Company. His name appears on Company Roll dated September 9, 1778, which shows that he enlisted May 28, 1777 to serve three years.

In the year 1796, he with his wife, Rachel, and part of their children moved on down to Springfield, Tennessee, where their son Thomas migrated to in the year 1789, and Henry, Jr., followed his brother Thomas in 1793, coming as a deputy surveyor to him. Henry and family settled at a place that later became known as the Ben Porter place, two and a half miles east of Springfield. He afterward purchased a place on Carr's Creek about three miles South of Springfield. This place was sold to Walter Bell after the death of Henry Johnson.

Others of the family buried there "three and one half miles east of Springfield, on Henry's farm at the time of his death" are the wife of Thomas Johnson, Mary NOEL JOHNSON, died 1816; Taylor Noel Johnson, theirson, 1818; Thomas Johnson in 1826; and Mary Noel, mother to Mary Noel Johnson; and Rachel Johnson, youngest daughter of Henry Johnson and Rachel Holman Johnson.

Henry Johnson, from time to time, acquired other lands in Robertson, as appears on the early records of the County. Henry was granted from North Carolina a Land Grant No. 217, 640 acres of land in Davidson county on the North side of Tennessee River on Blount's Creek, on March 7, 1786. I do not have the information as of May 1997 but Gov. Paul B. Johnson of MS is of the line of Henry Johnson Rachel: Rachel Holman is said to have been the daughter of Daniel Holman and sister of David Holman.

A. William JOHNSON born 02 JUL 1764, Salisbury, NC, married 01 APR 1783, in Rowan Co., NC, Diana "Dianna" ADAMS, born 22 JAN 1767, Virginia, (daughter of Matthew ADAMS and Elizabeth _____?) died 18 APR 1840, Newton Co., MS, buried Beulah Cemetery, Little Rock, Newton Co., MS. William died 13 JUL 1845, Newton Co., MS, buried Beulah Cemetery, Little Rock, Newton Co., MS. William birth date and location in DAR application were entered as 1767 TN., by DAR verifier. All available family records indicate 1764 and in the opinion of Jeanne Hand Henry he was born in North Carolina. In 1977 Jeanne Published "MY CROSS AND HAND FAMILIES" (and my Beeman, Hamrick, Johnson, Page, Vance, Wells, Williams, and Woodward Families) William as a youth was a soldier and patriot of the Revolution, lived a democrat, and died a Christian. A copy of this marriage bond is on file in the North Carolina State Archives.

The date of William migration from Tennessee is unknown. William Johnson must be one of the William Johnsons enumerated in Madison County Tax lists of 1811, 1812, 1813 and 1815 because John Woodward stated in his Declaration of Pension Application for War of 1812 that he married Rebecca Johnson "daughter of William Johnson and Diana Adams" in Madison County in January 1813. Likely, William Johnson was still here when his daughter Rachel married Richard Jones on 05 JUL 1814.

The Tax list for 1811 lists William Johnson, Bear Flat according to Lucille McDonnell of Jackson, MS [01 APR 1971]

One William Johnson served as Justice of Peace in Tuscaloosa County, AL in December 1821; and three land grants were issued there to one William Johnson: #1086; 1087; for 79.50 acres and each dated 24 OCT 1821; and #2799 for 80.86 acres, dated 23 FEB 1822.

By 1830, our William Johnson was in Pickens County with other known members of his family as heads of household.

In 1835, William Johnson bought land in Newton County, Mississippi, in Section 23, TWP 7, RG 2E, alongside Thomas Jefferson Reynolds who married Nancy Oyler (granddaughter of William Johnson). Earlier in 1833, Walter W. Johnson had moved to Newton County, MS.

The following members composed the church: William Johnson, Diana Johnson, John B. Johnson, Mary Johnson, Mary Barrett, James Johnson, Alsy Johnson. The Enon Church was established March 5, 1836. Note: William Levert Johnson Sr. Had six or more siblings, I think, I can only recall the names of two: .

Calvin who was a fireman in Miami And Walter who stayed on the farm in Mississippi,

Ora Mae Thompson had several siblings, the only name that I recall was Cora. One of Ora Mae's sisters married one of William Levert's brothers. Mama used to talk about her double first cousins.

Also, I found that M. J. Thompson, 1702 17 Ave., Meridian, Miss signed Ora Mae Delayed Mississippi Delayed Birth Certificate of Birth, on October 21, 1950, He stated that he was her brother. According to the 1946 city directory for Meridian, M. J. Thompson, was Martin J. Thompson (wife Mildred) he was a carpenter for Marks-Rothenberg. The 1955 Meridian city directory listed him as Martin J. (Wife Lee M.). We were unable to find out any dates on M. J. Thompson

According to the Delayed Birth Certificate Ora Mae was in the U. S. Census Report Beat 3 for Kemper County, Mississippi .(6-1-1900) Kemper County is north of Lauderdale County and DeKalb, Miss is the county seat.

Also, Mama had a cousin who was a professor at a college in Columbus, Miss.

My mother spoke of Suqualena, Miss as her home growing up!!!!

James died 24 AUG 1977, Duffee, Newton Co., MS, buried Liberty Cemetery, Duffee, Newton Co., MS. James Covert was Baptized in 1932 at Pine Grove Baptist Church in Martn, MS.

Covert was the third child of Henry and Hosanna "Johnson" Harrison. He was the first son born into a strict but very honored family. Covert had three years of formal education but was later to educate himself to at least a high school equalivancy. He entered the first world war and found himself in France and was one of the lucky ones to come home without some injury. Covert loved his family, he honored his parents and he loved his neighbors. His honor was never under the very best, totally honest, totally devoted to his religion and to those he could help. He endeavored to install this in all his children. He turned the other cheek when not one other person in tens of thousands would have done so. He too was an advocate of learning and he learned in advanced of his children in order to teach them and he taught them math, geography and history plus astrology plus flora and fauna. It seemed that his inteligence was without end. We children often pondered what he could have accomplished if he had had access to education and if he had not had the responsiblity of raising a family during the great depression. He may not go down in history but all his children know that he was one of the GREAT ONES.

By: Pauline HARRISON MUNN-THACKER. Annie: Marriages at Newton Co., MS Courthouse, 01 APR 1986. Annie was Baptized in 1932 at Pine Grove Baptist Church, Martin, MS.

Annie BROOKS was the fourth child of Will and Rebecca "Beeman" Brooks. She was a young lady who craved education but during her youth, girls were not afforded schooling. She mastered eighth grade education, in fact she wanted an education so badly that she took the eighth grade for three years. She had a chance for the ninth grade and gegan it, but without books she had to retreat back to the eighth grade. Needless to say she learned her lessons well and thanks to her dedication she was always a great teacher to her five children, not only a great teacher but advocated that they get an education and she was ready to sacrifice if only they would heed her advice. Annie was an accomplished semstress and made most of the clothes the family wore, even making coats, suits and mens shirts. She even made patterns. Annie made a devoted partner with Covert and between them they raised a family, bought a farm and a house and made a HOME for the family. She was very proud of this farm as it was part of the land that her grandfather and great grandfather had owned. Her father and mother owned part of the old family farm to the North of her and Uncle Tom Brooks owned another part to the South.

Deana having two brothers that was older and one younger brother she not only grew up taking dance but at the baseball field as her mother and I are very active in all youth programs. When she was eight years old she ask to play baseball but we had no program for girls. Her mother and I started a fast pitch softball league. She became one of the top players in the league was an allstar with batting and pitching trophy honors and played in more than one world serial. When her daughter became of age to play Deana became a coach in the program. Deana was a cheerleader in pee-wee football, Jr. High and High School. Deana was an honor student at Pascagoula High and University of Southern Mississippi. She graduated from USM in 1991 with a Bachelors Degree in education. June of 1991 she was employed by Ingalls Shipbuilding Inc. and after three months with the Co. she was promoted to Editor. In February of 1994 she went to work in her dream job as a teacher in the Pascagoula School System in the Jr. High level. She loved this job and had great success with her students. During the year and half that she taught we were told by a number of people, which include fellow teachers, and her principal that she was a very good teacher. But on June 5, 1995 a man came to her home that we built for her in 1991 "Which was also her dream home" and shot her to death and then killed himself because she would not date him. Deana had to work very hard for her education as she had one child upon entering college and two before graduation. She would have graduated with her master degree this summer with a 100 average. Even though she had a great love for teaching and for sports of all kinds her greatest love was her two children Casie age 13 and Chase age 8 and she summed it up in one of her etchings in her school books. The questions was asked Deana " What is the most wonderful learning experience you have ever had? Quote"The most wonderful learning experience I have ever had would have to involve my own children. I have learned (slowly, over the years) that children are the most important people on earth. They are the building blocks and the modeling clay for the futures. Deana went on to say that it helped her develop a greater appreciation for children, greater devotion to teaching more understanding of children and more patience. (Taken from her last notebook in college). Deana was many things a teacher, a sister, a daughter, a friend and above all a mother. She was an artist and a writer in the future we hope to have some of her poems published until that time we cannot put them in this article. Deana was named for her aunt and uncle Mavis and Foy Dean.

Annie was Baptized in 1932 at Pine Grove Baptist Church, Martin, MS.

Annie BROOKS was the fourth child of Will and Rebecca "Beeman" Brooks. She was a young lady who craved education but during her youth, girls were not afforded schooling. She mastered eighth grade education, in fact she wanted an education so badly that she took the eighth grade for three years. She had a chance for the ninth grade and gotten it, but without books she had to retreat back to the eighth grade. Needless to say she learned her lessons well and thanks to her dedication she was always a great teacher to her five children, not only a great teacher but advocated that they get an education and she was ready to sacrifice if only they would heed her advice. Annie was an accomplished seamstress and made most of the clothes the family wore, even making coats, suits and mens shirts. She even made patterns. Annie made a devoted partner with Covert and between them they raised a family, bought a farm and a house and made a HOME for the family. She was very proud of this farm as it was part of the land that her grandfather and great grandfather had owned. Her father and mother owned part of the old family farm to the North of her and Uncle Tom Brooks owned another part to the South.

By Pauline Harrison Munn-Thacker James: James Covert was Baptized in 1932 at Pine Grove Baptist Church in Martin, MS.

Covert was the third child of Henry and Hosanna "Johnson" Harrison. He was the first son born into a strict but very honored family. Covert had three years of formal education but was later to educate himself to at least a high school equivalency. He entered the first world war and found himself in France and was one of the lucky ones to come home without some injury. Covert loved his family, he honored his parents and he loved his neighbors. His honor was never under the very best, totally honest, totally devoted to his religion and to those he could help. He endeavored to install this in all his children. He turned the other cheek when not one other person in tens of thousands would have done so. He too was an advocate of learning and he learned in advanced of his children in order to teach them and he taught them math, geography and history plus astrology plus flora and fauna. It seemed that his intelligence was without end. We children often pondered what he could have accomplished if he had had access to education and if he had not had the responsibility of raising a family during the great depression. He may not go down in history but all his children know that he was one of the GREAT ONES.
