In July of 1998, I finally made up my mind to begin the family history of my family, the Cooley's. Little did I know that I would also end up researching my Mother's family - the Ball's. And in doing so was so enwrapped with the genealogy bit that I got into the Stokes family.

So..... with the 'old' information given to many of us by David Brooks Stokes, I began assembling information from everyone who came to the Stokes Family Reunion in 1998 and 1999. My thanks to David Brooks and to all of you who contributed information.

No, it is not 'perfect'. I have probably misspelled some names and locations was well as typed in some dates incorrectly..... but then ..... my apologies for any errors.

I hope you enjoy looking through this book as much as I have enjoyed gathering the information.

Account of the death of Clarence Stokes from the Neshoba Democrat as given by a friend:

"He was braking on the log train which was pulled by Fordson Tractors, each tractor carrying two cars o logs. He was sitting on the end of the front car between it and the tractor, the coupling pin jumped out and he had his feet resting on the coupling pole and it dropped down causing him to lose his balance and falling in front of the car of logs. The car ran over him as it was down grade and killed him instantly, broke his neck, and cut off his left leg just below the calf all but small bit of skin. He never spoke a word only as he fell some of the boys said he hollered out OH, Lord! So he was brought in to the mill at once and all the works were closed for the day. I personally wired you for the Company, and I personally had his body embalmed and prepared for shipment, I personally selected his case and clothes buying the best that was obtainable here at the expense of the Bell M. Notes for CLARENCE REA STOKES:
Account of the death of Clarence Stokes from The Neshoba Democrat as given by a friend:
"He was braking on the log train which was pulled by Fordson Tractors, each tractor carrying two cars of logs. He was sitting on the end of front car between it and the tractor, the coupling pin jumped out and he had his feet resting on the coupling pole and is dropped down causing him to lose his balance and falling in front of the car of logs. The car ran over him as it was down grade and killed him instantly, broke his neck, and cut off his left leg just below the calf all but small bit of skin. He never spoke a word only as he fell some of the boys said he hollered out Oh, Lord! So he was brought in to the mill at once and all the works were closed for the day. I personally wired you for the Company, and I personally had his body embalmed and prepared for shipment, I personally selected his case and clothes buying the best that was obtainable here at the expense of the Bell M. F. G."

FOND REMEMBERANCES
of MY MOTHER'S LIFE

by Gladys Stokes Coleman

My mother, Sallie Josephine McKleduff Stokes, was born in Kemper County, Miss., on November 28, 1887. Her mother's family, the Jordans, was one of the pioneer families of Kemper County. Her mother died when Mom was 12. Mom and her brother, Stanley Bradford McKleduff, were cared for by their cousins, Richard and Willie Cook in their home. Mom's two sisters, Mary Gertrude and Willie Leona McKleduff, went into a foster home with a family named Donald. They lived there for several years.

The reason for the separation of the family was that the father, John David McKleduff, was unable to care for and keep the family together. John came to this country from Ireland. After his wife's death, he left Kemper County and went to Mobile, Alabama, for a period of time. He later returned to Kemper County and got the family together again.

Mom remained with the rest of the family until she was 18. She then met George W. Stokes (born Aug. 30, 1881), who at that time was visiting his Uncle Marion (Dink) Stokes, who lived in Kemper. Mom and George W. fell in love and eloped to Philadelphia, Miss., where they were married on January 20, 1908. They lived with and on my Grandmother Elizabeth Stokes' place for a short time. Then they moved back to Kemper County, near what is now Preston, Miss., on the place of my father's Uncle Dink. Dink had several girls, but no sons, so my father and his uncle were very close, almost like father and son.

My two older brothers and I were born on Great Uncle Dink's place. We lived there several years. Two sisters were born there, Nannie Grace and Edna Earline, who died at 20 months, in 1916, and 16 months, in 1917, respectively.

We then moved back to Philadelphia, Miss., where we again lived on my grandmother's place. There was one son, Cecil Bradford, born here Oct. 23, 1918, who died in June of 1919 after contracting whooping cough and pneumonia.

We then moved to a place north of Philadelphia where my twin brother, Georgie Ray, and sister, Rachel Elizabeth, were born in Aug. of 1921. We moved to another place near Philadelphia where another brother, Therman Russell, was born in August of 1923. We then moved back to Kemper County to my grandfather's place. There were three children born there. Twin sisters, born in March 1925, lived only a few hours. They were born prematurely.

My father, George W. Stokes, Sr., died in February 1926, and my youngest brother, George Washington Stokes, was born in May, 1926. My great uncle and several of the leading people in the community assisted mom and the children in this time of sorrow and adjustment.

My father was a good Christian man and was well-respected in the community. He was a farmer and worked for a sawmill. He was very faithful in taking our family to church and was asked to go near and far to pray for the sick. He enjoyed having fun with the family, taking us on fishing and camping trips and to political rallies. He was a registered voter and exercised his right to vote. He was a member of the school board and often had teachers eat Sunday dinner with us. We were often called the teacher's pets.

My Grandfather McKleduff died in November 1926, and my mother and her two sisters each received a good settlement from his estate. My mother and the family then moved to another place near Preston, Miss., where we lived for three years. Herman, my oldest brother, fell in love and got married, and my next-oldest brother, J.B., and I worked as wage hands on the farm. My mother was not a very good manager of money, and soon the money that she received from the estate was gone. This was the beginning of the Depression years, and I, the oldest daughter, went to Meridian, Miss., and got a job at the Alden Mills. I stayed with my father's sister, Aunt Myrtil Burkes, until I could get a house for us to move into in Meridian.

We moved near the back door of a Baptist church where five of the children became Christians. This was the 8th Avenue Baptist Church. There was also a "Goodwill Center" nearby where we attended all of the mission activities, Y.W.A. G.A., and R.A.'s, and all kinds of activities. It was a miracle how the Lord took care of us as I was the only one working at this time. Our family was helped in many ways by the then associational missionary and a dear friend, Miss Nannie B. David. One of the teachers at the Tuxedo Public School, Miss Evelyn Gastow, helped with many special needs.

J.B. married in 1933, so this left me the only breadwinner until the other brothers and sister were old enough to work. The next-to-the-youngest brother, Therman R., enlisted in the army at the age of 17, in 1940, just prior to the beginning of World War II. In 1941, three of our family were married: Ray in January; Gladys (myself) in February; and Rachel in March.

Herman was employed as a welder in the shipyard at Pascagoula, so Mom and G.W., my youngest brother, moved to Pascagoula. G.W. got a job in the shipyards until he was old enough to enlist in the U.S. Marine Corp. At this time, I had a brother Ray in the Coast Guard, my husband, Grady Coleman in the Air Force, and my sister Rachel's husband, Raymond Foster, in the Navy Sea Bee's.

My mom moved back to Meridian with me and lived with Rachel's family and mine until my family and I moved to Gulfport, Miss., in 1952. At that time, Mom moved in with Rachel until she broke her hip in 1972. She had to have professional help and was placed in a nursing home. My mother was affectionately known to all of her friends and relatives as "Granny." As long as she was able, she loved to travel and visit with the children, family, and friends. She especially loved to cook for her "preacher boys" as they came to preach at her church.

All of our family were very glad and thank God for letting us have such a wonderful mother and grandmother for so long a time. She was a blessing to all of her friends and relatives and never saw a stranger in her life. She could talk to anyone. She loved Meridian and was always glad to get back after a visit to other places.

In reviewing her life as I remember it after we moved to Meridian in 1929, I think the happiest time for her from 1929 until she broke her hip was from 1952 until 1972, for she really enjoyed life during this period.

Psalms 37:25 says "I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread." I can surely testify to this fact for Mom never turned anyone away, and the Lord always provided for us.

This account of the events of my mother's life covers the period from as early as I can remember until Mom was placed in the nursing home in 197. Rachel Stokes Foster wrote of this period until her death.

Mom's Days in the Nursing Home

by Rachel Stokes Foster

Aug. 1972. My mother fell and broke her hip. Dr. Robinson operated on her. She recovered after six weeks in the hospital. Rachel took her home but could not care for her physical needs. The doctor recommended a nursing home. At that time, there was a long waiting list at all the nursing homes in Meridian, but we prayed, and God answered our prayers. By noon the next day we received a call from Myrick Nursing Home.

It was most difficult to leave Mom at the home, but we felt God had answered our prayers, and there at the nursing home, they could take care of her needs. There were difficult times as mom and the family adjusted to the fact that she would have to live at the nursing home. Mom did adjust and the employees loved her. She also loved them.

The family visited her often and took her on outings to their homes for holidays and other occasions.

Mom spent 8½ years at Myrick. The family felt a need to change her resident, so we moved her to Broadmoor Nursing Home. Again it was an adjustment, especially for Mom, as Myrick was more of a family-type home and Broadmoor was big.

Mom and the family learned to love the employees at Broadmoor, and they loved Mom and took care of her needs. Problems did occur at both homes, but we worked with the home to solve them.

Mom lived 3½ years at Broadmoor, 8½ years at Myrick, which made a total of 12 years in the nursing home.

Mom's health began to decline and she was in bed more. In 1981 she went to bed and was there until her death Sept. 13, 1983.

Mom's funeral was Sept. 15, 1983 in the chapel at Webb Funeral Home. She was a member of Westwood Baptist Church and her pastor, Dr. Buford Usry, preached her funeral. He knew Mom well, as he and Mrs. Usry had visited her at the home for many years. She loved them both.

Bro. Usry said that Mom's testimony was Psalms, chapters 23 and 91, and 1 Thes. 4: 13-18.

Arlene Patterson (grandaughter) gave a beautiful eulogy to Mom on behalf of the grandchildren. At the close of the service, everyone repeated the Lord's prayer together.

It was a beautiful day on which Mom was laid to rest at Memorial Cemetery, Meridian, Miss. Many people came to Mom's funeral. She had many beautiful floral arrangements and books were given to the library at Westwood as well as twelve Gideon Bibles were given in her memory.

On her tomb are the words, "The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want." Surely He was, and He supplied all her needs, spiritual, physical, and financial, during her life.

In closing, I use the words Arlene used in the eulogy. She was not dead in the eyes of the world, with fame or wealth. But the great heritage she has left to each of us has helped to make each of us a better person and enhanced our lives beyond measure.

Our loss is truly Heaven's gain. She has achieved what we are all still striving for--to someday stand in the presence of Jesus!!

There is a void in the family now, but we know she is in Heaven and we would not want her back to suffer physically anymore.

Thanks, Granny, for everything.

these quilts. Dad and the other men would make the frames on which Mom would take the bleached white domestic cloth and put on the bottom of the starting of the quilt on the frame. Soft white cotton was then placed on the top of the muslin; next the top of the quilt was put on top of the cotton. These tops were made by sewing small pieces of cloth together; these were called quilt 'squares' and were sewed together in different designs. These were sewn through the cotton and muslin in lines so that the cotton could not move around and 'lump up' in one place. Also at this time of year, you could look out at night and see a big orange moon. This was called the 'harvest moon'.

When people got sick and were confined to the bed, friends and your relatives would come and sit up with them to wait on them as you had few doctors and nurses then. When women had babies some other woman would leave their home and come stay at least a week until the mother was able to be up and about. In my childhood you took care of Grandparents in your home when they were not able to live alone.

When there was a death in a family, neighbors and relatives came and had the 'wakes' as they did not have funeral homes to carry them to. The preparation for the funeral was done by these friends and relatives. The coffin was made by the men and the women lined the casket with white cloth and a pillow was placed under the head. The grave was dug by the neighbor men. The casket with the body was put on a wagon to be taken to the church for services and burial was usually in the church cemetery. The flowers that were taken were from the yard if there was something in bloom.

We learned early in life that we have our sad times and also our good times. We had many hours of fun, too. Our family loved each other very much and stuck together through bad times and good times.
