No record is found of when they came to America or if all the family came. Some further mention is made of two brothers Lemuel and Aaron and four sisters, Betsy (probably Elizabeth who married a Johnson, Louise who married a Pilgrim, and one who married an Eakes.

James Fair Phillips was born in north Carolina and went from there to Georgia when a single man and there married Betsy Deering (born August 4, 1804, in Georgia). They lived in in Georgia for a while then moved to Alabama and lived a few years and then moved to Neshoba County, Mississippi some time in the 30's of 1800, living there the remainder of his life.

The children of James Fair and Betsy Phillips were Robert, Mose, Aaron, Lucy, Jane Will, Jack, and James,
