PREFACE

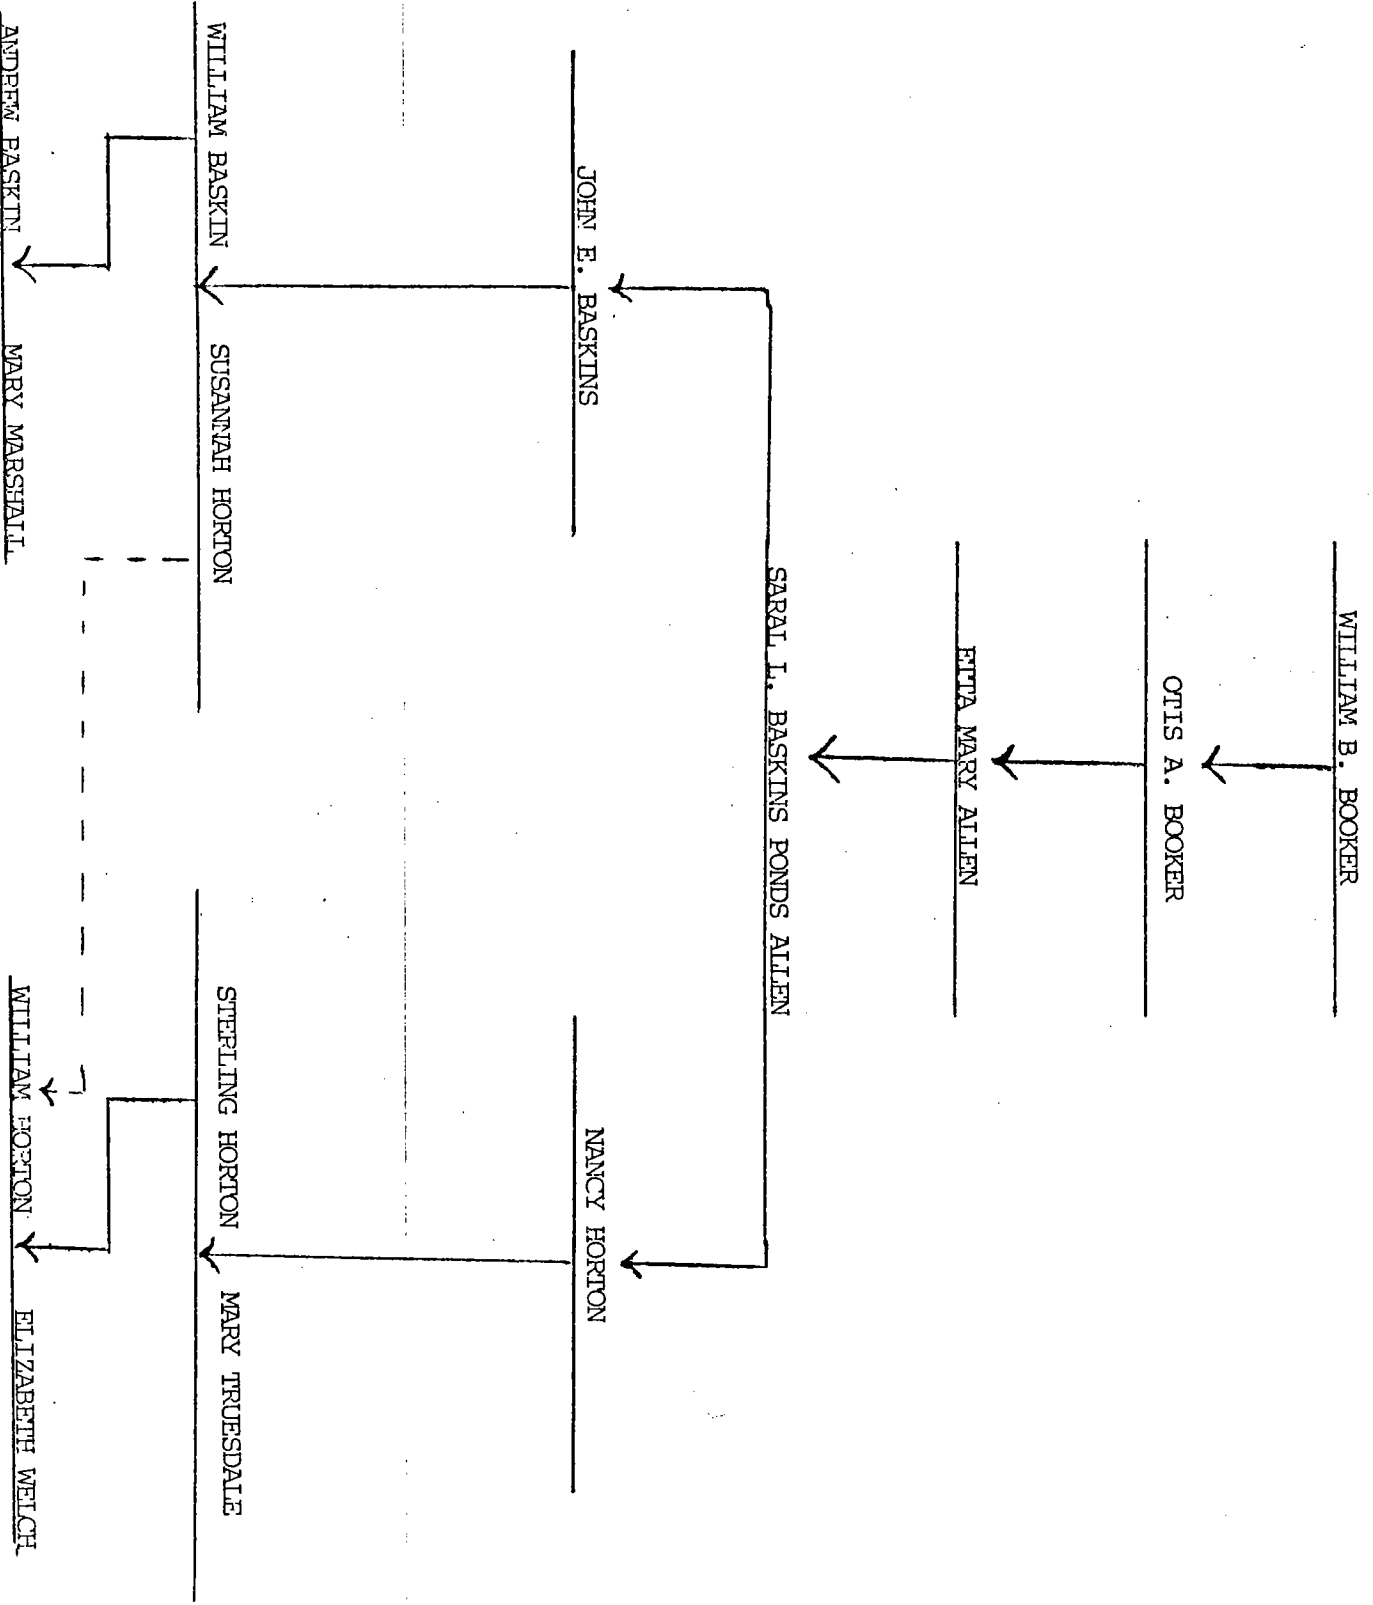

This is a collection of old records by William B. Booker, Anne H. Booker and Mrs. Jere Gunn. This particular book is but a part of the collection which is divided into ten different smaller books and divided by families. Every effort has been made to attain the highest possible degree of accuracy; but since the attainment of perfection in an undertaking of this sort is difficult, if not impossible, we shall not deceive ourselves by believing that we have achieved it here. Instead, we humbly beg your tolerance for any errors that may appear.

The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language defines "genealogy" as the study or investigation of ancestry and family histories and it defines "collection" as a group of objects or works to be seen, studied or kept together, an accumulation. After looking at both of these definitions, we decided to call this a "collection" instead of a "genealogy".

The writer has been gathering Baskin data for many years. New information keeps coming in making corrections and additions necessary. This report is on ANDREW BASKIN of Kershaw and Lancaster Counties, South Carolina. Most of the data have been published in The Baskin-Baskins Family 1963. The late Dr. Eldridge Baskin of Florence, S.C. supplied many names and dates. Help has been received from: Mrs Ben C Hough, Mrs H C Floyd, Wade Ruddle, Mrs Hazel P Jones, Mrs Alma D Croxton, Mrs Mamie Rice, J W Baskins, Mrs A P Guess, R R B Shaw, Mrs H W McKay, Mrs R C Stevens, Senator W P Baskin, Miss Mary W Stewart, Mrs H G Womack, Mrs Marlin Withers.

Other sources have been:

Chalkley: Chronicles of the Scotch-Irish, Augusta Co, Va
 Court Records of Kershaw and Lancaster Cos, S C
 Land and Military Records, Archives Dept, Columbia, S C
 Andrew Baskin was born about 1730, probably in Ireland. He died about 1800 in Lancaster County, South Carolina.

Augusta County, Virginia

The first record of Andrew Baskin is Nov 15-1752 in Augusta Co, when he was appointed one of 22 (probably young) men to "clear and keep in repair a road from James Givins Mill to the road over Woods New Gap at the foot of the mountain". Andrew must have lived in the part of Augusta shown in this map:

- AB bought by John Pickens 1740
- A sold to Anthony Strother 1753
- B sold to William Baskin 1747
- C sold to George Crawford 1765
- D sold to James Lessley 1740
- E sold to James Lessley Jr 1762
- F sold to John Pickens 1749
- sold to William Bell 1754
- land of Widow Baskin 1749, 54, 59
- land of Thomas Baskin 1761
- title must have gone to Thomas
- about 1759, year he was married
- first of William's sons to be married

The next record of Andrew Baskin is Mar 21-1753 when he with John Pickens and Robert Craven witnessed a deed from John and Sarah Stephenson to Archibald Houston. This may give a clue as to some of Andrew's relatives. Robert Craven, a justice, probably wrote the deed. Stephensons were not neighbors. Was Andrew related to Pickens or Stephenson? The land of Pickens adjoined both Widow Baskin and William Baskin. About 1754/55 Andrew Baskin and John Pickens went south to the NC-SC border. In 1764 John Pickens applied for land near Andrew Baskin before moving to Abbeville Co, S C - where there other Baskins. Andrew is a Pickens, but not a Baskin name.

The Baskin family originated in Ireland. In 1734 William and John Baskin were living in Chester Co, Pa. In 1754 these Baskins were in (now) Perry and Dauphin Cos., Pa: (probably sons of John)

James with 2 sons, William with 3, Francis with 1, Thomas. In Augusta Co, Va were these in 1754:

William with 6 sons, Andrew (single), Widow of Robert.

By 1774 the Baskin distribution was:

Pa: James. William and Francis were dead. Thomas was gone or dead.

Va: Charles, son of William.

SC - Kershaw Co: Andrew

Abbeville Co: James, William, Hugh - sons of William of Va.

(Other sons of Wm dead or in Va.) John, son of William of Pa. Charleston: William, minor son of Thomas who died 1770, leaving sister, Elizabeth Stephenson of Pa. (Could Andrew have been related? Note, Stephenson in Augusta Co, Va.)

The relation of Andrew to the others is unknown. He may have been a nephew of William of Va. If he was a son of Robert, who was dead Feb 28-1749, the name Robert is not found in his children or grandchildren. The estate of Robert was administered by William Baskin, settlement Nov 29-1750 in Augusta Co. William Baskin and John Pickens were together in Pa, Va and SC. They with their neighbor, James Lessley, petitioned for land in South Carolina in 1746. See page 10.

South Carolina

The first record of Andrew Baskin is in the Hanging Rock section near the Kershaw-Lancaster Co line, where on Dec 2-1761 he had surveyed 150 acres on the south prong of Little Lynches Creek. See map. The land had been taken out Nov 6-1755 in the name of William Delcack and acquired by Baskin before 1761. He was married in 1759 or earlier for his daughter, Isabella, was born Oct 20-1760. Andrew's wife was likely Mary Marshall. Her father may have been William. In 1769 (Mar 22) Andrew Baskin's name appears in the Augusta Co records, when he received money "on Bigham's account" from the John Trimble estate. It would be interesting to know why. John Trimble had been killed by the Indians in Augusta Co about 1763.

Andrew Baskin was one of a group of Regulators who were pardoned by the Crown Oct 31-1771. (Vol PP, p 46, S C Archives, Misc Records) Richard M Brown has written an informative book on The South Carolina Regulators (Harvard Univ Press 1963). He lists 121 Regulators who "were ambitious Back Country property holders determined to end lawlessness, to discipline the lower people, and to establish an orderly society". This movement was strongest 1767-69, just before the Regulators were established. A substantial number of the Regulators rose into the leading man category. Andrew Baskin was one. He had enemies as men of affairs do. "In 1790 Robert Dumville accused him of extortion and neglect of duties as magistrate. The case of State vs Andrew Baskin was placed on the docket, but in the April 1791 term the Attorney General entered a nolle prosequi and the matter ended." (Brown)

Baslin was granted additional 150 a near the 1761 tract in 1784 (100 acres) and in 1785 (640 acres). He helped pay for this land by using money obtained for military services. This land was likely in Kershaw Co, just southeast of the town of Kershaw. The record of the deed of the part sold in 1797 is in Kershaw Co. He sold the land east of the creek to his son, James. His son, John, got the land to the west. A third son, William, was granted 150 a. in Lancaster Co in the waters of Bear Creek in south cen- may have been named William's death in acres. He had bought Lynches in 1814 and

The above papers are dated Aug 28-1784 Camden Dist and Jan 8-1787 Lancaster Co, Lancaster was formed from Camden 1785. On Feb 17-1787 Andrew Baskin received a certificate for 15/18/6 for militia duty on foot and horse. He stated that he used this toward the purchase of 640 acres in 3 tracts (Mar 29-1787). He and Josiah Evans also supplied Genl. Gates' army with 5 head of cattle.

Later Years

In 1785 Andrew Baskin became one of the first justices in the new county of Lancaster. He also served as road commissioner. He was a member from the District East of the Wateree to the S. C. convention which met to vote on the adoption of the U. S. Constitution. On Jan 19-1788 he voted against calling a meeting in May. On Mar 23 he voted against adoption. In his district the vote was 9 for 1 against. The state vote was 149 to 73 for adoption. Brown says Baskin stood to gain by voting for the Constitution because he held $224.24 in depreciated currency. He held to his convictions and voted against the Constitution as did most of the Back Country men.

On Apr 5-1790 he registered his stock mark in Lancaster Co. "Swallow fork and under keel or fish hook in each ear, Brand on horses AB and For Cattle A only." Andrew must have lived on his 1761 land in Kershaw Co until about 1797. Kershaw was formed from Lancaster in Feb 1791. In 1797 when he sold land he was in Lancaster 50 where he likely died - possibly at his son William's. The 1797 deed was recorded Nov 12-1800. He appears in the court records of Camden and Kershaw every year from 1787 to 1797. The last record of Andrew Baskin is Apr 22-1799 when in Camden Dist Court he and others were accused of rioting. Caro dismissed. His name is not in the 1790 or 1800 census. He likely died about 1800 and may lie in an unmarked grave in Baskins Cemetery in Lancaster Co. The will records of Lancaster were destroyed in 1865.
